

JUAN CARLOS RODRÍGUEZ

Composer

JUAN CARLOS RODRIGUEZ (Based in LA - Has Dual Citizenship) is a Venezuelan-born pianist, producer, and composer who started his music career in 2000 and has gone on to become a 4 time recipient of the prestigious BMI Film & TV Award for his work for NBC's/Telemundo, as well as for his work on the 5 time Emmy nominated Hulu's series East Los High.

Early in his career, Juan had the opportunity to work with Colombian artist Shakira as a Recording Engineer on her Multi-Platinum album Laundry Service and with the band Bacilos as a keyboard player/arranger on their Double Grammy Award winning album Caraluna.

Residing in Venice, California, Juan has established himself as an instrumental/dramatic composer and songwriter for Film and TV. Recent works include Hulu's East Los High season 4, the hour long extended episode East Los High- Finale and the series Matador for Robert Rodriguez's El Rey Network for which he won a nomination at the 2014 Hollywood Music in Media Awards for Best Score. Juan is currently working on the series El Señor de Los Cielos, season 5.

Juan holds a degree in Film Music Composition from Berklee College of Music.
